DESIGN CODE ●●●

Carlos Otero, the Argentinian-born and New York-based interior designer, is similarly devoted to the simple yet beautiful ethos. Originally trained as an architect, Otero is known for his clean, elegant interiors and often juggles residential projects in Manhattan, the Hamptons, and his native Buenos Aires. It's there that Otero developed his taste for rich coffee, a high-octane beverage that still perfectly suits his international lifestyle.

Here, TASSIMO presents the perfect home environment for the modern, leading man.
